Climbing Wall Standards

- Double check all knots and equipment connections before climbing.
- Belayers must keep their attention on climbers at all times. Use proper commands and communication.
- Do not distract active climbers or belayers, and never walk between a belayer and that wall.
- Never grab bolt hangers or quick draws. This may result in serious injury to fingers during a fall.
- Long hair must be tied back to avoid snags in belay devices.